INDEX.

A

Abbott, W. O., and Henry, C. M., Paredrine (β-4-hydroxyphenyliosopropylamine); sympathomimetic drug, 661
Acetyl-β-methylcholine chloride, use of, by iontophoresis in peripheral vascular diseases, 405
Acetyl-beta-methylcholine (mecholyl), physiologic effects of, and relationship to other drugs affecting autonomic nervous system, 198
Adenoma, adrenal cortical, with absence of opposite adrenal; case report with operation and autopsy, 812
Adrenal cortical adenoma with absence of opposite adrenal; case report with operation and autopsy, 812
Adrenalectomy, observations on effect of, on hypertension produced by kaolin, 873
Agenesis of lung; literature review and case report, 81
Aisner, M., and Segal, M. S., see Jankelson, I. R., 241
Albright, F., Sulkowitch, H. W., and Bloomberg, E., further experience in diagnosis of hyperparathyroidism, including discussion of cases with minimal degree of hyperparathyroidism, 800
Alcohol addicts, gastric acidity in; relation of B vitamins to achlorhydria, 501
Alpers, B. J., and Drayer, C. S., organic blackground of spasmodic torticollis; case report with autopsy, 378
Altshuler, S. S., and Mellen, H. S., see Gould, S. E., 611
Amytal, repeated administration of, 246
Anderson, R. S., see Leslie, G. L., 149
Anemia, bone marrow in; red blood cells, 181 macrocytic, dietary deficiency as cause of, 633 pernicious, gastric juice in patients with, in induced remission, 23
  secretion of hippuric acid in, 647
Antibody, type-specific, Pneumococcus Type VII pneumonia treated with, 59
Anticonvulsant drugs, use of rats in study of, 446
Appelbaum, E., chronic meningococcus septicemia, 96
Appendicitis, primary tuberculous, and appendicitis complicating pulmonary tuberculosis, 700
Arizona, atrophic arthritis among Pima Indians of, 229
Arkansas, Eastern, study of osseous remains of "Mound Builders" of, 488
Arnett, J. H., and De Orsay, R. H., variability of vital capacity of lungs in youth, 684
Arsenic, urinary excretion of, I and II, 413, 420
Arterial disease, peripheral, blood-cholesterol response in intravenous therapy in, 737
Arthritis, atrophic, among Pima Indians of Arizona, 229 chronic, intestinal bacteria in, 233
Autonomic nervous system, physiologic effects of acetyl-beta-methylcholine (mecholyl) and relationship to other drugs affecting, 198
Autopsy incidence of cholelithiasis, 481

B

Bacteria, intestinal, in chronic arthritis, 233
Bakst, H. J., and Jeghers, H., pylephlebitis of extraportal origin; case report, 690
Bargen, J. A., see Garvin, R. O., 744
Baths, effects of, at different temperatures on circulation, 295
Benjamin, J. D., medicinal therapy in psychiatric disorders, 849
Bile, human liver, cholesterol in, 446
Blanck, E. E., iodine-resistant hyperthyroidism, 214
Block, F. B., tubal diseases and pelvic inflammations, 568
Blond, H. H., see Gunther, L., 525
Blood coagulation, toxicity and effect of Congo red upon, 626 cholesterol response to intravenous therapy in peripheral arterial disease, 737 formation in fetus and newborn, studies of, 111, 449 identification of, by hemolytic methods, 579 ketone curve after fat tolerance test, 617 pellagra, chemical peculiarity of, 658

Blood picture and pituitrin injections in normal and hypophysectomized guinea pig, 385 before and after fever therapy by physical means, 470 pressure, effects of posture on; postural test for classifying hypotension, 87 regeneration in man, observations on, I and II, 313, 327 sugar level of children, effect of, encephalography on, 259
Bloomberg, E., and Sulkowitch, H. W., see Albright, F., 800
Blount, R. C., Kinsey, R. E., and Trager, W., see Wintrobe, M. M., 449
Bockus, H. L., see Tumen, H., 788
Bone marrow in anemia; red blood cells, 181 of adult dog, quantitative cytologic study of, 462
Bradley, C., effect of encephalography on blood-sugar level of children, 259
Breathing capacity of lungs, variability of, in youth, 684
Brinkhous, K. M., Smith, H. P., and Warner, E. D., plasma prothrombin level in normal infancy and hemorrhagic disease of newborn, 475
Bruger, M., and King, S. E., failure of calcium therapy to diminish sugar excretion in renal glycosuria, 264
Bugher, J. C., Littig, J., and Culp, J., tuberculous tracheobronchitis; its pathogenesis, 515

C

Calcium therapy, failure of, to diminish sugar excretion in renal glycosuria, 264
Camp, J. D., and Dellinger, S. C., see Wakefield, E. G., 223, 488
Campbell, C. H., chemical peculiarity of pellagra blood; second report, 658
Capillary wall, passage of fluid through, 297
Carbaminoylcholine-(Doryl or Lentin); its action on normal persons in peripheral vascular disease, etc., 393
Carbohydrate tolerance and vitamin B_1, 733
Carbon dioxide, observations on use of, in early pneumonia, 525
Cardiac action of thio-barbiturates, 145 output, basal, metabolism, etc., effect of 10 commonly used drugs on, 579 patients, tolerance of, for recumbent positions (trepopnea), 354
Carey, W. C., see Wilson, J. A., 752
Carotid body, reflexes from, to respiratory center, 735
Cells, comparative permeability of, to water and certain solutes, 146
Cerebrospinal fever, relationship of meningococcus carriers to incidence of, 438
Chemical peculiarity of pellagra blood; second report, 658
Chemotatic substance derived from epithelium, 872
Chemotropic attraction of leukocytes by fraction of Strep. hemolyticus, 871
Chen, K. K., and Weaver, M. M., see Swanson, E. E., 246
Children, effect of encephalography on blood-sugar level of, 259
Chloroform, toxic action of, on liver, 578
Cholelithiasis, autopsy incidence of, 481
Cholesterol, in human liver bile, 446
spectrophotometric studies of color development in, by Liebermann-Burchard reaction, 446
Chorea and rheumatic activity, independence of, 1
Cinchona derivatives, variations in production of visual disturbance by, 543
Circulation, effects of baths at different temperatures on, 295
Coburn, A. F., and Moore, L. V., independence of chorea and rheumatic activity, 1
Colitis, chronic ulcerative, hematologic picture of; prognosis and treatment, 744
Collapse therapy, intensive, in pulmonary tuberculosis, I. Extent and results in 1124 patients, 149
Colon, roentgenographic studies of mucous membrane of, III, 510
Color development, spectrophotometric studies of, in sugar analysis by Benedict method and of cholesterol by Liebermann-Burchard reaction, 446
Congenital syphilis, 137
Congo red and toxicity, effect of, upon blood coagulation, 626
Coramine, observations on, 673
Coronary thrombosis, preliminary pain in, 42
Corwin, W. C., peritoneal cytologic response; experimental study, 251
Cowan, J. H., observations on coramine, 673
Culp, J., and Littig, J., see Bugher, J. C., 515
Culture media, new—desoxycholate and desoxycholate-citrate agars, for isolation of intestinal pathogens, 688
Cystine excretion in cystinuria, 294
Cystinuria, cystine excretion in, 294

Cystologic response, peritoneal; experimental study, 251
Cytologic study, quantitative, of bone marrow of adult dog, 462

D

Dameshek, W., and Loman, J., see Myerson, A., 198
Dawson, W. T., Permar, H. H., Johnston, J. M., and Maclachlan, W. W. G., variations in production of visual disturbance by cinchona derivatives, 543
